CANADIAN BAND IS APPRECIATED

Honolulu turned out en masse and there was not a vacant seat in the Opera House last night when that splendidly trained organization, the "Kilties," gave a burst of band music and instrumental solos, sword dances, and Highland flings, such as has not been heard or seen here before in many moons. Without question, the "Kilties" are excellent. This was testified to by the evident appreciation of the large crowd in the Hawaiian play-house, for after each selection encore after encore was called for and given.

Mixed with the national airs of the Canadians came the "Dixie" and "Yankee Doodle" which is so dear to the heart of every American, played in a manner which brought the listeners almost to their feet in their keen enjoyment. It was a noticeable feature that, at the end of the splendid concert, the lads in the Scotch kilts played "The Star-Spangled Banner" to a standing audience, showing how far they had won those present, for it has been commented on many times before that Americans are usually apt to neglect paying the little touch of respect to the Flag and the Nation when the national air is being played.

"There's No Place Like Home, but I Couldn't Go Home in the Dark," the latest popular musical fancy in the States, was chorused and mischorused by every instrument in the big band, from the squeaking, shrieking piccolo to the ponderous bass horn, in a manner that blended into one great gorgeous laugh. It was a burlesque on a popular piece of music. Just as Weber & Field take off the popular comic operas and plays, and the house was kept in one continual roar of laughter from beginning to end.

What perhaps delighted a great many of those present more than anything else were the clever and excellently executed Scotch and Irish dances by two maids, a boy and a man. They had the tripping of these old-fashioned difficult dances down to a fine art, and especially was this shown when the little boy dancer manipulated his feet in the intricate mazes of the Sword Dance. The bagpipes played all those who felt the old Scotch blood in their veins. The performance was also a great novelty to the greater number of the audience. All in all, Honolulu was treated to the best musical show of years last evening.

COL. TUCKER SPECTATOR WHILE PHYSICIANS CUT HIM UP.
CLEVER WORK

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich., June 28.—Colonel William F. Tucker, son-in-law of Mrs. John E. Logan, is one of the few men who has seen the contents of his abdomen.

With the light remark, "I suppose all I get out of this is an obituary notice," he submitted himself to the dangerous and uncommon operation known to medical science as evisceration, taking nothing but local anesthesia.

In the Philippine service a year ago Colonel Tucker contracted cirrhosis of the liver.

For fear of heart weakness, only local anesthesia was used and the patient watched the doctors handle the knife.

Eighty pounds of fluid were taken from Colonel Tucker, reducing his weight from 195 to 115 pounds.

One of the nurses who witnessed the operation was Mrs. Myrtle Platt, who has been named by Mrs. John A. Logan and her daughter, Mrs. Dolly Logan Tucker, the wife of Colonel Tucker, in charges made to the War Department. Mrs. Platt was stated to have made the acquaintance of Colonel Tucker in the Philippines.

She was a pretty school teacher and he an army paymaster. Afterward Mrs. Platt was at Raton, N. M., while Colonel Tucker was there. The army inquiry resulted in a finding that the friendship between Colonel Tucker and Mrs. Platt was a perfectly proper one.
